Employment of Children Byelaws

Made.....

Coming into force.....

The London Borough of Lambeth, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by sections 18(2) and 20(2) of the Children & Young Persons Act 1933, hereby makes the following Byelaws:

Citation and Commencement

1. These Byelaws may be cited as the London Borough of Lambeth (Employment of Children) Byelaws 2014 and shall come into force on the .... day of ..... 2015.

Interpretation and extent

2. In these Byelaws, unless the context otherwise requires:

“the authority” means the London Borough of Lambeth;

“child” means a person who is not yet over the compulsory school age as defined in section 8 of the Education Act 1996.

“employment” includes assistance in any trade or occupation which is carried on for profit, whether or not payment is received for that assistance;

“light work” means work which, on account of the inherent nature of the tasks which it involves and the particular conditions under which they are performed:

- a) is not likely to be harmful to the safety, health or development of children; and
- b) is not such as to be harmful to their attendance at school, their participation in work experience in accordance with section 560 of the Education Act 1996, or their capacity to benefit from the instruction received or, as the case may be, the experience gained.

“parent” includes any person who has for the time being parental responsibility for a child within the meaning of section 3 of the Children’s Act 1989.

“public place” includes an public park, space, garden or railway station and any ground to which the public for the time being have or are permitted to have access, whether on payment or otherwise;

“street” includes any highway and any public bridge, road, lane, footway, square, court, alley or passage, whether a thorough fare or not.

“street trading” includes the selling of newspapers, flowers and other articles, playing, singing or performance for profit and other like occupation carried on in any street or public place; and

“year” except in expression of age, means a period of twelve months beginning with 1 January.

Prohibited Employment

3. No child of any age may be employed

- (a) in a cinema, theatre, dance hall or night club<sup>1</sup>

10. No child may be employed in any work out of doors unless wearing suitable clothes and shoes.

11. Babysitting is not considered to be employment within these Byelaws

Notification of Employment and Employment Permits

12. Within one week of employing a child, the employer must send to the local authority written notification stating:

- (a) his own name and address;
- (b) the full name of the business and any trading name as well as the registered office address;
- (c) the name, address and date of birth of the child;
- (d) the hours and days on which the child is to be employed, the occupation in which the child is to be employed, details of the task involved and, if different from (a) above, the place of employment;
- (e) a statement of the child's fitness to work, and of approval for the child to be employed, completed by the child's parent;
- (f) where the child is attending school, details of the school at which the child is a registered pupil;
- (g) a statement to the effect that an appropriate risk assessment has been carried out by the employer.

13. Where, on receipt of a notification, the local authority is satisfied that:

- (a) the proposed employment is lawful;
- (b) the child's health, welfare or ability to take full advantage of his or her education would not be jeopardised by undertaking the work; and
- (c) the child is fit to undertake the work for which he or she is to be employed, the local authority will issue the child with an employment permit

Issue of a Child Employment Permit

- 14. The local authority will issue the child with an employment permit, which the employer must keep securely at the place of employment and produce for inspection when required to do so by an authorised officer of the authority or a police officer.
- 15. Before issuing an employment permit, a local authority may require the applicant to provide a professional medical documentation (from a GP, Clinical Psychologist, Education Psychologist, etc) that clearly identifies that the child is fit to fulfil their working responsibilities.
- 16. Lambeth Child Employment Team will, be solely responsible for deciding whether or not a child is fit to work based on the evidence provided.
- 17. The employment permit will state and include:
  - (a) the name, address and date of birth of the child;

(b) the hours and days on which the child is to be employed, the occupation in which the child is to be employed, details of the task involved and the place of employment;

(c) a photograph of the child

(d) details of any breaks the child must be given and the period of the breaks.

18. A child may be employed only in accordance with the details shown on his or her employment permit.

19. A local authority may amend a child's employment permit from time to time on the application of an employer.

20. The local authority may at any time revoke a child's employment permit if it has reasonable grounds to believe:

(a) that the child is being unlawfully employed, or

(b) that his or her health, welfare or ability to take advantage of his education are suffering or likely to suffer as a result of the employment.
