

Appendix B: Recommendations for the council's partners and national government

Ref	Recommendation	Audience/ partner	Cabinet member	Officer holding partner relationship
Education and learning
Tackle under-achievement among children and young people
1.9	National government should establish projects for black Caribbean pupils and provide ring-fenced funding for this activity	National government	Councillor Jane Edbrooke	Cathy Twist, Director of Education & Learning
Support young people at risk of disengagement from education
2.6	National government should Ring-fence funding for mental health support services in schools, to help with early intervention and prevention of mental health among young people	National government	Councillor Jane Edbrooke	Cathy Twist, Director of Education & Learning
2.7	National government should Review its guidance to schools on exclusions, strengthening disincentives to off-roll or exclude pupils from schools illegally, and setting national and regional targets for reducing Black Caribbean permanent and fixed term exclusions	National government	Councillor Jane Edbrooke	Cathy Twist, Director of Education & Learning
Support young people during key transition periods – primary to secondary and school to work/training/ further education
3.5	The government should extend the Access to Work Scheme to cover	National government	Councillor Matthew Bennett	Dawn Redpath, Head of Economic Inclusion

	volunteering, work experience and internships so that disabled young people have additional support in making the transition from education to work
Income and employment
Tackle low pay and poor working conditions
5.7	The London Mayor should with London Councils, lead on a 'Know Your Rights' campaign for migrant workers at risk of exploitation	London Mayor	Councillor Imogen Walker	Dawn Redpath, Head of Economic Inclusion
5.8	The government should with the London Mayor, implement a range of actions to influence access to training and access to better careers advice	National government	Councillor Matthew Bennett	Dawn Redpath, Head of Economic Inclusion
Mitigate the impact of welfare reform changes for residents most at risk of poverty and social exclusion
6.3	National government should review its policies in light of Inclusion London's response to the UN Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities inquiry into welfare reform changes in the UK and, in particular, the disproportionate impact on disabled people and people with mental health issues.	National government	Councillor Paul McGlone	Chris Palmer, Director Policy & Communications
Participation, representation and leadership
Develop community leadership and increase participation in public life amongst target groups
7.7	Local political parties should build on existing work to involve diverse community groups in political leadership, ensuring local councillors	Local political parties	Councillor Lib Peck	Sean Harriss, CEO

	are representative of the communities they serve
Crime and justice
Build on activity to improve trust and respect between the police and the community
11.3	The Metropolitan Police Service should work with voluntary and community sector organisations and community members to review their race equality and disability awareness training to ensure it is fit for purpose	The Metropolitan Police Service	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
11.4	The Metropolitan Police Service should promote their existing engagement structures (such as Safer Neighbourhood Boards, Stop and Search Monitoring Group), internally to ensure they are inclusive and reflect Lambeth's diversity	The Metropolitan Police Service	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
11.5	The Metropolitan Police Service should encourage officers from all ranks to get involved in community engagement work to prevent them becoming isolated from the concerns of local residents	The Metropolitan Police Service	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
11.6	The Metropolitan Police Service should systematically provide feedback on their engagement activity and reflect how it has	The Metropolitan Police Service	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment helped to influence and shape community policing locally.

Tackle hate crime, violence against women and girls (VAWG) and support vulnerable victims of crime
12.1	The Safer Lambeth Partnership should work with the council's Adult Social Care commissioners to better understand and support the needs of vulnerable victims of crime, particularly disabled residents and those with mental health issues	The Safer Lambeth Partnership	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
12.2	The Safer Lambeth Partnership should work with learning disabled residents to develop a local Safe Places scheme that offers support to vulnerable residents	The Safer Lambeth Partnership	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
12.3	The Safer Lambeth Partnership should ensure that tackling violence against women and girls is a priority and that specialist services are funded to support victims.	The Safer Lambeth Partnership	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
12.4	The Mayor of London should take a pan-London approach to funding domestic violence refuge beds across London	London Mayor	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
12.5	The Mayor of London should instruct the Metropolitan Police	London Mayor	Councillor Jim Dickson and	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment

	Service to monitor disability hate crime as a specific crime and improve efforts to increase reporting.		Councillor Mohammed Seedat
Reduce the impact of crime on young people
13.3	The Mayor of London should use MOPAC's forthcoming Knife Crime Strategy to fund a pilot community initiative programme to bring together local partners with the aim of reducing youth violence in Lambeth.	London Mayor	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
Tackle disproportionality and inequality in the criminal justice system
14.1	The Mayor of London should continue to take steps to increase the proportion of BAME officers, particularly at senior levels, monitor the quality of the experience of these officers and use their experience to enrich others	London Mayor	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
14.2	The Mayor of London should make sure there is adequate and appropriate provision for female offenders, mirroring the work in Lambeth to ensure there is a consistent and gender-specific approach across London.	London Mayor	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment
14.3	National government should instruct the Home Office and	National government	Councillor Jim Dickson and	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment

	Ministry of Justice to work with community organisations to tackle the disproportionate representation of particular groups in the criminal justice system		Councillor Mohammed Seedat
14.4	National government should improve information-sharing protocols across the different arms of government responsible for crime and justice, and produce regular reports on equalities outcomes that can be independently monitored and reviewed by the Mayor of London.	National government	Councillor Jim Dickson and Councillor Mohammed Seedat	Raj Mistry, Director: Environment